Delegations of "sporting" men from various parts of the country arrived in the city yesterday in order to be on hand early to-night for the sparing match at the Madison Square Garden, between John L. Sullivan and Charles Mitchell. The fight will certainly take place. "Al." Smith, the backer of Sulivan, received word vesterday from Mitchell that he was as fit as could be desired, having fully resovered from his recent sickness, and that he would be on hand without fail. Sullivan left Boston last night at 10 o'clock, and will arrive in this city this morning at 6 o'clock. Mitchell will come up from Long Branch in the afternoon. All the arrangements for the fight have been completed. The stage in Madison Square Garden has been erected. It is larger than any that has heretofore been used, and there is a large margin outside of the regulation twenty-four-foot ring, which has been staked off, so that in case either of the contestants is knocked out of the ring he will not fall to the floor and run the risk of being hurt. The stage is five feet from the floor.

Sullivan will weigh in the nighborhood of 200 pounds in his fighting clothes. He has been in hard training, and has lost over twenty pounds. He is in as line condition as he ever was. A story was circulated that he had been drinking heavily. This statement is discredited by his backer, "Al" Smith, who said last night: "I haven't heard a word of Sullivan's being drunk and don't believe it. He may have been at his place on Saturday night, and feeling good over getting out of training taken a couple of drinks, but that was all. We'll have a big house. Between 500 and 1,000 people will be here from Boston, and I have had telegrains from different cities indicating that large delegations will be present."

Mitchell will fight at about 160 pounds. He says that he has fully recovered from his attack of -LITTLE DOUBT AS TO THE VICTOR.

will be here from Boston, and I have had telegrams from different cities indicating that large delegations will be present."

Mitchell will fight at about 160 pounds. He says that he has fully recovered from his attack of malaris and is in fine form. He is confident that if the fight had taken place before the attack came on he would have come out ahead, but his experience with Jersey chills in the last ten days has shaken his confidence, and all that he hopes for now is to respond when time is called for the last round.

The corridors of the hotels most affected by "sporting" men were crowded last night and the fight was the only topic of conversation. There is a decided difference of opinion as to Mitchell's ability to stand the twelve minutes' pur ishment that he will receive at the hands of Sullivan, provided that he stays the four rounds. The ardent admirers of the exponent of the "manly art" from Boston are confident that Mitche will get all that he can stand within two rounds at the most. The little Englishman has a good number of friends, however, who are putiling up their money that he will be there at the end of the fourth round, when they can get satisfactory odds. Mitchell's sickness is had dupon in various lights. By some it is regarded is a big advertising scheme, while others look on it as the ground-work for an excuse if the Boston man should knock him out too quickly. There is no betting on the result of the fight.

THE DEATH OF WILLIAM A. BEACH. ARRANGING FOR THE FUNERAL-HIS LAST HOURS

DESCRIBED BY HIS PHYSICIAN. Judge Miles Beach visited Tarrytown yesterday morning to make arrangements for the burial of his father, William A. Beach, who died on Saturday. The bedy will be taken to Troy this morning. The funeral services will be held in St. Paul's Church in that city tomorrow, and be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Harrison.

Dr. J. H. Furman, who was Mr. Beach's physician during the latter's residence in Tarrytown, gase a Transume reporter the following account of Mr. Beach's sickness and death:

TRIBUNE reporter the following account of Mr. Beach's sickness and death:

Mr. Beach and his wife drove over to see me yesterday afternoon. They came about 1 o'clock and we sat about the grounds chatting pleasantly for some time, when he was suitedenly taken with a cengestive chill. I at once gave him stimulants, applied hot bottles to his feet, and wrapped him to blankets. In about an hour and a haif he partly recovered and started, though reluctantly, to drive homeward with his wife. They had gone but a short distance when he was attacked with voniting and they returned, remaining perhaps half an hour lenger. He was much depressed and breathed with difficulty. He asked me to diver him with conversation and also to examine him as to his physical condition. I saw that he was extremely iff and feared he might die while here, but he recovered sinfliciently in my judgment to enable him to reach his home, which is about a mile from here. I urged him to go and he went upon my promising that I would fellow immediately, which I did. When I arrived at his house he lay upon a lounge, his usual resting place, but was unable to articulate, except a few words, calling upon his physician and his children alternately. In about thirty-minutes after his arrival, he died quietly and easily. He had been II for many years with mitral disease of the heart, which increased and became aggravated as he grew older and as his tissues became impaired with age, but he had not been fineapacitated for work prior to April last. He was a min of great vitor and unconnict ambition. He came to his country home about the first of April has then here only five and more invigorated, he was a side to go out and he has been riding daily for many weeks, being driven sometimes by his cibildren, sometimes by his wife and sometimes by his cibildren, sometimes by his wife and sometimes by his cibildren, sometimes by his wife and sometimes of the time, and his conversation was brilliant and number of the time, and his conversation was brilliant and number most of the time, and his conversation was brilliant and hungerous. He leved to meet his friends, many of whom visited him here and was also fend of the society and conversation of his physicians.

SUDDEN DEATH OF T. H. COAKLY.

SUDDEN DEATH OF T. H. COAKLY.

Timothy Haulon Coakly, who for many years has represented at Boston and Philadelphia the firm of Nicol, Cowlishaw & Co., upholsterers, of No. 869 Broadway, met with a shocking death on Saturday. Intending to take his wife to the races at Sheepshead Bay, he returned early in the day to their boarding-house, No. 56 West Twenty-first-st. Seated in a chair near the window, in the sec and story back room which he occupied, he studied the entries for the races. It was 11:20 a. m. when he looked at his watch in response to an inquiry from his wife, who thereapon urged him to hurry, as they had to take much before starting for Sheepshead Bay. He arose, threw off his coat, and went into the closet where the wash-stand was. His wife stood before the mirror with her back to the closet, arranging her hat. Half a minute afterward she heard her husband fall, and, turning, saw him lying on his face in the room, having apparently emerged from the closet and turned as if to re-enter it. She hurried to his side, lifted his head and found him insensible. She gave an alarm, hastened to procure a doctor and returned with one, who immediately declared that Mr. Coakly was dead and that his death wascaused by apoplexy. After an investigation Coroner Merkle found that this statement death was caused by apoplexy. After an investi-gation Coroner Merkle found that this statement gation Coroner Merkle found that this statement was correct.

Mr. Coakly was born! in Ireland, and coming to this country whom a young man, settled in Louisville, subsequently removing to Cincunnati, where he failed in the carpet business when the war broke out. He came to this city, and for the past lifteen years had been the trusted agent of Nicot, Cowiishaw & Co. Two years ago he married Mrs. Lulu Faxon, and since that time has used neither alcohol nor tobacco. He was fond of good living, however, and gree stout, weighing at the time of his death 200 pounds. He was a nue-looking man, forty three years old, six feet in height, and well-proportioned. He is spoken of as an exemplary husband and a generousham, who spent his money as fast as he carned it. He left his widow unprovided for. He had no children. The funeral will be held to-day at 1 p. m., at the house in which he died, and the bedy will be taken to Woodlawn Cemetery.

The Central Labor Union met yesterday afternoon at Second-ave and First-st. A communication was read from the Budalo Central Labor Union declaring its intention of having the first Monday in September a labor holiday. Delegates will be here from various erties to participate in the parade, which will take place under the auspices of the Central Labor Union. The first Monday in September. The trades will be represented by men working at their various handicrafts. The Cigarmakers' Progressive Union reported that it had settled all strikes. Brickhayers' Union No. 4 said that Contractor Schaefer had made his men wait two hours on Saturday, and he had been forced to p.y double time for the two hours. The union had decided that hereafter its men could not be paid off in any "ginmill." It offered all its funds to and the plumbers in their strike, if they need it. Other unions made similar offers of financial aid to the plumbers. The Framers' Union reported that it would order all men out from any job where a master plumber belonging to the association was at work, and that it had given $1,000 to the plumbers. Delegates from the plumbers were present and explained the possition of the lookout, and said that they were confident that they would be successful. Arming himself with a double-barrelled shot-gun he went out of the house, and saw the form of a man in his cabbage patch. Stealing countously along to within a few feet of the man, he shouted, "Hold up your hands!" The man sitempted to run, but Kappelman discharged one barrel of his gun in the air causing the thief to stand still. Officer Patrick Leonard, of the Thirtieth Precinct, hearing the report, hastered to the spot and took the thief in charge, locking him up in the West One-hundred-and-twenty-subbarrel Police Station. He gave his name as Smith, of No. 87 Jane-st.

CHILDREN AND THE WAR VETERANS.

Neat little pasteboard boxes, with an aperture for the receipt of coin, were exhibited at the meeting of the Executive and Memorial Committee of Kings County on Saturday evening. They were designed by E. A. Dubey, of the Labor Bureau of the Memorial Committee, and are to be placed in the houses of the well-to-do residents of Brooklyn, to receive the offerings of the children for the Emergency Fund of the above named committee. The sides are covered with appropriate sentences—quotations from Scripture—and on the wrapper is a brief reference to the war in which the men for whose relief the contributions are intended] endured so much danger and privation, and loss of limbs or of health. Comrade, Dubey, said that they would serve as educators for the rising generation. It was intended to issue 2,000. When the boxes are returned to the committee, at Room No. 144City Hall basement, on October 4, a little memento will be given each child bringing in the boxes and contributions. A committee of indies will be on hand to receive the children. Treasurer H. A. Phillips, reported that since the rooms were opened last April, there had been collected for the Emergency Fund $366 45, and expended $131 11, leaving a balance of $235 34.

The resignation of Major John H. Walker, as chairman of the committee, was accepted. Major Walker is about to remove to Minneapolis. Resolutions adopted by one of the Grand Army Posts expressing their appreciation of Major Walker southing zeal in the cause, were read and adopted as the sentiments of the Memorful Committee. A committee was appointed to draft a suitable testimonia to Major Walker. Remarks, all bearing feeling testimony to Major Walker's worth and devotion, were made by Dr. G. S. Little, E. A. Dubey, Major Bell, H. A. Phillips, L. E. McLaughlin, and A. H. Frost. CHILDREN AND THE WAR VETERANS.

IT WAS A MISTAKE ABOUT THE HOUR.

Perrin H. Sunner, broker, of No. 52 West Fortyseventh-st., ought to have appeared before Justice Gorman at Essex Market Police Court on Saturday for examination on the charge of false preteuces made against him by Daniel M. Davidson, of No. 66 Chariton-st., who asserts that through these false preteuces Summer defranded him out of $7,800 in the negetiation of the transfer of mining stock. When the case was called Summer was not present and Justice Gorman declared his bond forfeited. Sheppard Knapp, the well-known carpet dealer, had furnished bail for him in $3,000 and would be that much out of pocket if Justice Gorman's decision was enforced. But Mr. Summer makes an explanation which puts a different complexion on the case. He says that it was all due to a misunderstanding on his part as to the hour when the case was to be called. He thought that it was 2 o'clock in the afternoon instead of 9 o'clock in the merning. This explanation has proved satisfactory to Justice Gorman and Mr. Knapp will not lose his $3,000.

Mr. Knapp told a rather curious story of how he came to furnish bail for Mr. Summer, which illustrates how a man's enemies sometimes unwittingly serve him when intending to injure him. Mr. Knapp was turning the matter over in his mind as to whether he should furnish bail for Mr. Summer, with whom he was only slightly acquainted, when a pamphlet, probably sent by the other side, was placed in his hands, purporting to give a detailed history of Mr. Summer's career, and heaping all manner of shuse upon him. This method of persecution so incensed Mr. Knapp that he atonce consented to furnish the bail, and he says he is satisfied that he will not loose it.

A BROOKLYN TEMPERANCE REUNION. IT WAS A MISTAKE ABOUT THE HOUR.

A BROOKLYN TEMPERANCE REUNION. A BROOKLYN TEMPERANCE REUNION.

A remion of the Brooklyn temperance organizations was held in the Temple, Clermont-ave, near Myrtle-ave., Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon. There were also present the Manhattan Temperance Association, Temperance Co. D., 12th Regiment, the Redemption Lodge of Good Templars, and the Soldiers' Lodge, from Fort Hamilton. The meeting was under the auspices of the Mizpah Gospel Temperance Association. A. H. Walker presided. There was an attractive programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental music and recitations. The Rev. Dr. Justin D. Fulton said:

and instrumental music and recitations. The day I read the platform of the Republican party I knew it would not do, and why I Because they had seen it to deal with the liquor question by leaving it alone. Didn't mention it. Biaine and Logan, both, are splendid men, magnificent men, all we could ask for, and they are backed up by a magnificent party, but there was no temperance plank in the platform. And they are backed up by a magnificent party, but there was no temperance plank in the platform. And they are showing out the Democratic party; what can we expect from that? Nothing! After Cleveland, whom they are showing out of the party as fast as possible, comes Bayard, and who is Bayard! I will tell you; he is the attorney of the beer interest. Much depends upon the convention that is to be held at Pittsburg in July. There is no use talking about achieving a victory unless we have a grand man to lead us, a man that the Nation knows, a man of broad ideas and broad principles. Such a man is General C. O. Howard. There is also Governor St. John, of Kaussa, a large-hearted, fearliers man.

The Rev. Duncan McGregor, the Rev. Dr. Thwing, Dr. H. D. Mann, J. B. Gibbs, Mrs. McDonaid, Captain B. S. Barnard and others also spoke.

POOL-SELLING AT CONEY ISLAND.

The June Grand Jury in Brooklyn when sworn in by Judge Moore in the County Court of Sessions, was charged to find indictments for any violation of the law relative to rambling and pool-selling. As both the Sheepshead Bay and Brighton Beach race-tracks are in Kings County it was expected that the open violations of the law in pool-seeling at both tracks, and also of various places on Coney Island, would be noticed. It is expected that the local jury will finish its work to-day and will present a batch of indictments against the pool-sellers. Anthony Comstock has been active in Brooklyn for some days, and has been active in Brooklyn for some days, and has been closeted with the District-Autorney and other officials, and it is thought that he has submitted some of the evidence upon which the Grand Jary had to act. District-Autorney Ridgway and his assistants stand ready to prosecute any case of infraction of the law brought to their notice. At least twenty indictments against pool-sellers are expected to be presented to-day in the Court of Sessions. Pool-selling being a misdemeanor, the violators of the law will be given notice to appear and plead to the indictments. It is likely that the pool-sellers will be driven out of kings County by the vigorous steps to be taken.

HANRITTY ADMITTED TO BAIL. POOL-SELLING AT CONEY ISLAND.

HANRIFTY ADMITTED TO BAIL. Valentine Hanrity, the old man who struck Joseph Venroy with a stable broom in Samuel Hopper's blacksmith shop, at New-Dorp Lanc, at New-Dorp, S. L. was arraigned before Justice Young, at Richmond, on Saturday night, charged with having caused the death of the young man, who died early on Thursday at the Ninety-ninth Street liospital in this city. At the examination before Justice Young, Mr. Hauritty, who is sixty years old and has snow-white hair, cried intensely.

His employer, Judge Benedict, testified to his good character. Hauritty said that he had no intention or desire to hurt, and certainly never thought of killing the young man when the heavy broom was picked hp. The weapon was exhibited to the court by Hanritty's counsel. It was shown that the handle, which was in Hauritty's grass, was made of light stuff, like a house-broom handle, while the other end was of solid oak, and heavy, with sharp edges. Hauritty had used it he said, to give Venroy a smart crack in punishment for his persistent tantalizing. tantalizing.

The Justice released Harritty under $2,000 ball to await the action of the Grand Jury, Judge Benedict becoming the bondsman.

CAUSE OF A. B. WARNER'S DEATH CAUSE OF A. B. WARNER'S DEATH

Deputy-Coroner Jenkins made an autopsy yesterday on the body of A. B. Warren, the iron merchant, who was found dead early on Saturday morning in Sixty-fourth-st., near Minth-ave. The cause of death was shown to be Bright's disease. As this leaves no room for any suspicion that he was foully dealt with, the police do not deem it a matter of great importance to find out how he came to be in a cab in an unfrequented portion of Ninth-ave, about daybreak, and why he was turned out on the sidewalk as he was about breathing his last. But inquiries are being made. Captain Leary, of the One-hundredth Street Police Station, said that the carriage in which Mr. Warner was driven was a private one, or came from a livery stable, because the old German, Voight, who saw it, is positive it had no number and exhibited no hight Had it been a regular licensed hack both would have appeared.

SUNDAY BASEBALL PLAYING STOPPED, SUNDAY BASEBALL PLAYING STOPPED,
There was a large crowd in the Sunnyside Baseball Grounds, Long Island City, yesterday morning when the police arrived still ordered the ball playing to be stopped. P. Ryan, owner and manager of the grounds, obeyed the order under protest and went to New-York and consulted counsel. He returned about 1 o'clock and, acting under the advice of counsel, erdered the games to go on. The police, under command of Sergeant Dorsey, said that they would arrest the first man who hit a ball. "All right, then," said Ryan, "You'll have to arrest me," and picking up a bat he sent a ball flying across the grounds. The sergeant at once arrested him and took him to the Astoria station house. Justice Deichanty arrived soon after and admitted Ryan to bail in the sum of $100, to appear for examination Tuesday and answer to the charge of having vio lated the Sunday law. When Ryan was arrested the young men quietly dispersed and returned to their homes.

HENRY A. DANIELS, M. D., 144 Lemingtonava, between 23th and 3 beaus. Hours, Stol., 5 to 7. Diseases of the Nervoussyssum. Genite-Unimary Organs. Imposence and specifics.

Warm Weather Has a peculiarly weakening and debilitating effect, which, if not overcome, may be but the forerunner of serious disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla's just the medicine to overcome weakness of the body, to purify the blood and give new life and vigor to the entire system.

"I was all run down, had no appetite my food would not digest, and I was troubled with nervous debility. On taking Hood's Sarsaperilla I commenced to feel the effects of it at once. Have now taken four bottles, and can say that I feel like of new norm. J. H. McCA!!, Bookester, N. Y.

Strangthen the System "In four weeks 1 cod's Sarsaparilla made me a new man My head cased wo ashe and my whole system is built up anew, enjoying perfect health. It is the best medicine I ever used, and, after baving tried others, I find it has no equal."
